

Amandine Constant

Assembly Program Management and Operations Support / General Secretary - French & European Flying Disc Federations

Summary

Coordination and driving role for multicultural teams and people with different background in microelectronics industry as well as in Sports non-profit organisations and sports events.

Experience

Assembly Program Management and Operations Support at STMicroelectronics

June 2012 - Present

Managing assembly operations for Set-Top-Box and Digital Division.

Driving industrialisation, cost-reduction program and yields

Coordination and driving role for multicultural teams and people with different background.

Packaging Engineer at STMicroelectronics

July 2006 - June 2012 (6 years)

Packaging Roadmap: Qualification, Industrialisation, Manufacturing

Interface & Coordination with central teams (R&D, Planning, Division)

Technical Coordination with assy plants and subcontractors

Technical Support to marketing and customers

Body Card Development Engineer at Axalto

January 2005 - June 2006 (1 year 6 months)

Axalto (Gemalto) - Orleans (45 - France)

R&D Contactless Technologies Department

Functions : Conception and industrialisation of a new product (body card - electronic travel document)

Missions : Coordination R&D/Process/Equipment/Production/Marketing

Research of new materials

Trials and qualifications

Supplier specifications

Education

Polytech'Grenoble

Engineer, Engineering Materials science, 2001 - 2004

Activities and Societies: Material sciences (polymers, metallurgy, ceramic...) and mechanical behavior
